

CPR CEO Drew McSherry Named 2026 Titan 100 Honoree

Crisis Preparation and Recovery (CPR) is proud to announce that President and CEO Drew McSherry has been named a 2026 Phoenix Titan 100 Honoree.

The Titan 100 program recognizes Phoenix's top CEOs and C-level executives who demonstrate exceptional leadership, vision, and impact within their industries and communities. This prestigious recognition celebrates leaders who are driving innovation, fostering growth, and creating meaningful change throughout Arizona.

Since joining CPR in 2009, Drew has led the organization through significant growth and transformation, expanding access to behavioral health services across the state while remaining committed to CPR's mission: We Exist to Serve. Under his leadership, CPR has implemented innovative solutions and strengthened its ability to support individuals, families, and communities in need.

While this recognition honors Drew's leadership, it also reflects the dedication and commitment of the entire CPR team. Every day, CPR employees work tirelessly to provide compassionate, high-quality care and make a lasting difference in the lives of those we serve.

Please join us in congratulating Drew on this well-deserved achievement. We are grateful for his leadership and excited for the future of CPR!

The 2026 Titan 100 Honorees will be recognized at the annual Titan 100 Awards Celebration on September 24, 2026.
